

Withdraws Suit Against City

Was Started By Michigan Public Service Co.
With Intent To Stop or Delay Construction of Municipal Electric Plant.

Don Sweeney, local manager of the Michigan Public Service Co., announced to the Avalanche today that his Company had withdrawn its suit against the City of Grayling, contesting the election at which time the citizens of Grayling voted to approve the City Council's plan to construct and operate a municipal electric light and power plant to supply the people of Grayling.

The suit was to have come up in Circuit Court next Tuesday.

All City Officials Easily Reelected

ALL PRESENT OFFICIALS RE-ELECTED

Graylingites were quite lax in getting out to vote Monday, apparently being contented with the present council and willing to stay at home and let others do the voting for them. Only 441 votes were cast, out of about 950 registered.

However those who did exercise their right of suffrage placed their stamps of approval on the present incumbents on the city council. Here are the figures as taken from the official records:

Councilman—
George Burke—316
Frank Sales—314
Roy Milnes—317
Albert L. Roberts—319
Carl Jensen—313
Holger Peterson—117
Edwin Carlson—175
Earl Nelson—114

Justice of the Peace—
Hans Petersen—244
Paul Hendrickson—90
George VanPatten—52
Harley Russell—27

Constable—
Joseph Denno

In spite of his 82 years of age, Hans Petersen was given a huge vote for the office of city justice of the peace. Out of a total of 441 votes he received 244. Mr. Petersen gives his undivided attention to his duties as justice and we know that he has made a fine record, with very few errors in judgment. He is intelligent, honest and intends to be fair in everything he goes into. He has made a fine record and he should be proud of the endorsement the voters of his city have given him by their votes. Paul Hendrickson had the next highest vote and made an excellent showing considering that this was his first experience in campaigning. He is a fine and able young man and would have made an able official.

Joseph Denno for constable had no opposition and was duly elected. He is the WPA foreman on the job at the Grayling trout hatchery.

ENTERTAIN WITH DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Esbern Hanson and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Joseph were hosts at a very delightful dinner with the ladies and gentlemen of their bridge club as guests.

Bouquets of marigold gave a cheerful atmosphere to the rooms where the dinner was served on small tables.

High scores for contract were held by Mrs. Roy Milnes and Dr. C. R. Keyport.

This was the final of a series of

Easter Sunrise Services Attract Thousands As Churches of Nation Hold Observances

Each Easter Sunday morning thousands of worshippers gather at the gently graded slope of Mount Forest Lawn in Forest Lawn Memorial park, Glendale, Calif., for sunrise services. A huge choir, dressed in white forms a living cross on the side of the slope. During the past few years sunrise services have become increasingly numerous, and have been held in all sections of the country where weather permits.

Resent Action Against Municipal Light and Power Plant

CITIZENS COMMITTEE HAS BIG MEMBERSHIP

Plan United Action For City's Interests

As a result of the court action started for the purpose of defeating the plans of the people for the construction of a municipal electric light and power plant, a call was sent out for a mass meeting to be held in the school auditorium Monday night. This was for the purpose of organizing a citizens' committee if it was the desire of those present to do so. The meeting was called by Dr. C. R. Keyport, T. P. Peterson, Dr. J. F. Cook, Dr. C. G. Clippert, Holger F. Peterson and Clarence Gross.

Over 100 were present. Dr. Keyport explained the purpose of the meeting and said that ever since he had been in Grayling there were some who opposed municipal improvements. It was always a fight to put thru plans that were to cost money. He pointed out the new school building, the bonds for which have long since been retired; the waterworks and paving bonds; the sewage disposal bonds, all of which are being paid with due regularity. None of these projects were to produce revenue more than their cost for operation, still we were getting along without difficulty. Now here was a project, a municipal lighting and power plant, that quite assured not only that it would pay for itself out of its earnings, but promised a profitable earning besides.

Now, as we are about to begin the sale of our bonds and ask for bids for equipment and construction, the Michigan Public Service Co., thru some of our own people step in and try to stop and delay us. He read the following resolution:

Whereas, a special election was held in the City of Grayling on February 20, 1939 at which was submitted to the voters of said City the proposition of acquiring a municipal light and power plant, and

Whereas, said proposition was affirmatively carried by the necessary majority of the voters of said City, and

Whereas, prior to said election, the Michigan Public Service Company actively opposed said proposition, and by various publications and public meetings, attempted to influence the voters of said city to vote against said proposition, and

Whereas, suit has now been instituted against the City by Merle F. Nellist, Prosecuting Attorney for Crawford County on the relation of Gale Clise and Jappe F. Smith, in which it is alleged that said election is void because of certain technical errors therein, and

Whereas, we as citizens of Grayling are of opinion that said suit was instigated by the Mich-

Saturday was a red-letter day for the Crawford County Grange as 23 candidates were initiated into the order in the first and second degrees at the new Grange hall. This makes a total of 77 members the Grangers now boast of with several more coming in soon. With the membership at this point, now delegates expensed to the State Grange will be paid by the latter.

The initiatory work was put on by G. F. DeLaMater of Gaylord, district deputy, who also gave a school of instruction.

Following are the names of those initiated:

Mrs. Rose M. Parker, Mrs. Lucille Howse, William Hoffman, Nelson Corwin, Mr. and Mrs. Stephan Jorgenson, Melvin L. Enyart, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Redhead, Axel M. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Chris King, Mr. and Mrs. Lacy Stephan, Hjalmar Mortenson, Herbert Stephan, Mr. and Mrs. Hurl Deckrow, Mrs. Albert Schreiber, Mr. and Mrs. Norval Stephan, and there were two re-initiations, Irvin Cady and Mrs. E. J. Cross.

Other guests besides Mr. DeLaMater, district deputy of Gaylord, were Mrs. Bessie Carl, a member of Lakeview Grange, Gaylord, and Dr. William Gribble of Marietta, Ohio, a loyal booster for Grange activities.

Present officers of the Grange are: Master, Hugo Schrieber; Overseer, Richard Babbitt; Lecturer, Mrs. Cynthia Knecht; Sec., Mrs. Florence Wakeley; Treas., William Woodburn, all of whom are hard workers and have activities of the Grange much at heart.

CONSERVATION MEN IN- SPECT DEER AREAS

Eight men representing the State Conservation department, met here last Sunday for the purpose of visiting the deer areas to study the food conditions following the winter season. In the party were the following: Boyd Belcher, past president; Lyle Torrant, treasurer; Glen L. Fisher, executive secretary, and Herbert Friend, president, of the Jackson County Conservation league, and H. D. Sharpe, all of Jackson, Mich.; Carl Gower and Paul Hickie, both of the Game division of the Department of Conservation; and Otto Failing, local conservation officer.

Pictures were taken showing conditions of areas that appeared to have been browsed to the very limit. Cedar trees were stripped of every bit of foliage as high up as was possible for deer to reach. In some regions it looked quite like it would have had if a group of woodsmen had made it a business to trim the branches. There wasn't a twig left that could be eaten.

It is well known that a certain species of trees won't be touched, such as spruce, for instance, and these stand untouched.

Many deer were trapped in this area last fall and shipped to other regions, hoping to relieve the food problem, still there seemed to remain too many in proportion to the amount of natural food available.

While this group wasn't searching to find out if any deer had starved during the winter, one was found. This one had a broken left shoulder and appeared to have been shot, probably during the hunting season. It was a good sized buck. Its antlers had been shed and beneath the body was considerable snow, indicating that it had lived some time after being shot and, because of its broken shoulder, was unable to get food and eventually died.

The deer yards north of the National Guard rifle range and those in and about Portage Lake swamp were the ones inspected. Another group will make further inspection soon. The public is invited to go out with these men whenever they are on official duty.

COMPLETE LAKE MARG- RETHE SURVEY

CCC enrollees from Camp Higgins Lake, under the direction of John Mallinger, Jr. Foreman, recently completed a survey and lake improvement work on Lake Margrethe, west of here.

In surveying the lake, the crew took depth soundings at 200 foot intervals to determine the contour of the lake bottom. Fifty foot intervals were used near shoreline. The deepest sounding was 65 feet. Improvement work consisted of the construction and placement of brush fish shelters. The shelters were installed in 10 feet of water and at 300 foot intervals along the north shore of the lake.

Local Girls Enter Trout Queen Contest

Entries of contestants from Mancelona, Kalkaska, Traverse City, South Boardman, Rapid City, and Grayling have been announced by the Kalkaska Trout committee.

Mrs. Stanley Stealy, chairman of the Queen's committee, announces that Miss Francis Entminger, Grayling's 1939 Winter sports queen, and Miss Margaret Buck, have been entered as contestants; others will be announced later.

From each community several girls are selected; these girls will sell a replica of a trout in the form of a pin. These pins will sell for fifty cents. The girl selling the largest number of pins represents her particular community. On Saturday evening, April 29, at the Queen-King's ball, the selection of the Kalkaska Trout Queen will be made from among those who won in their respective communities.

Outside judges will make the selection. On the following day the girl selected will be flown from Traverse City airport to Detroit and be presented to Richard Reading, Mayor of Detroit. She will be flown back to her destination afterwards.

Why not get behind these girls who are selling these pins in your community. Anyone girl can have as many co-workers as she so desires. The time is short, let's put this over, and be represented in the trout festival.

IMPROVED SIX 40-ACRE PLOTS

Veteran enrollees out of CCC Camp AuSable have recently completed six 40-acre plots on a timber stand improvement project. The areas improved are in a thick and dense stand of Jack pine, in most cases numbering more than three thousand per acre. A stand of approximately eight hundred to the acre is being left. The resultant wood products are being used in various ways to benefit the forest.

Small poles cut from the area are to be used this spring on stream improvement projects and larger poles and logs are to be used in the construction of several small log bridges in the AuSable State Forest. Products not suitable for these purposes will be used for cordwood.

CAMP AUSALE WORKING ON TELEPHONE LINE

The survey for the last three miles of the Elk hill-Down River telephone line project is now being conducted by Veteran enrollees McCloud. This spur will link CCC Camp AuSable, the State Forest Headquarters and District Headquarters at Roscommon with the Elk Hill fire tower. Veteran enrollees from Camp AuSable are doing the survey work under the direction of Jr. Foreman Bruce McGregor.

During the winter the State Conservation department planted 41 sharp-tail grouse in the vicinity near the Fletcher settlement. These were brought from the Upper Peninsula and it is believed they will thrive in this vicinity.

SOON TIME FOR SPRING FLOWERS

With the snowline in Michigan rapidly retreating northward, reports of the first spring flowers have been made in some places while the snow was still on the ground.

First flowers to bloom in Michigan are the Hepatica and the Spring Beauty. The flowers of the Hepatica are blue, lavender, pink or white, with no two clusters exactly alike. They are sometimes fragrant, always sweet and woody. The fragile blossoms of the Spring Beauty are starchy and pink veined, quickly drooping if picked.

Third flower to bloom in Michigan is the Arbutus, once found throughout the north country but now scarce and comparatively seldom seen. The flowers, if taken should be carefully cut, not pulled up, as the whole plant might easily be destroyed.

Health & Hygiene

CAUSES OF HEART DISEASE

Infectious poisons and long continued emotional strain are the two principal causes of heart disease.

In children, valvular heart disease may often be traced to an acute inflammatory rheumatism and to the so-called St. Vitus' dance. Both produce changes in the lining of the heart and its valves and even "growing pains" are anxiously watched by the physician. Timely care may prevent the onset of more serious heart conditions in adult life.

Still more grave is the condition resulting from a social disease when the aorta or vessels issuing from the heart are affected.

Infections of the teeth, tonsils, sinuses, gall bladder and prostate gland may gradually, but rarely fatally, affect heart action.

An over-active thyroid gland, even before marked goiter appears, may be responsible for faster and weaker heart beats. Such irregularity disappears shortly after operation of the gland.

Long continued nervous tension, obesity or diabetes produce a thickening in the walls of the blood vessels leading to and from the heart. Then, in order to supply the organs of the body with the same volume of blood normally required, the heart must pump the fluid at ever faster rate through the reduced arteries.

Finally, as physicians long ago observed, persons having a family history of heart or arterial disease seem to inherit organs which exhibit "wear and tear" at an early stage of life. With periodic physical examinations and with advice regarding diet, removal of infected areas and a more placid mode of life, the heart function can be preserved and hereditary factors largely offset.

SYMPTOMS OF EAR TROUBLE

While a number of disease conditions often are characterized by symptoms which are mistakenly attributed to an infection or degenerative change in the ear, a careful examination by a trained otologist will leave no room for doubt.

Members of a family in which there is a history of deafness or ear disease should be especially observant of possible trouble and should seek medical aid early even though the discomfort might seem temporary or trivial.

Among the warning signs there might be listed:

First, deafness, or a sensation of blocking, particularly after exposure to cold, while swimming, after fatiguing work or exercise, as an accompaniment of constipation or resulting from any period of lowered bodily resistance.

Second, when it is necessary to ask for the repetition of words and phrases; when two sounds are heard instead of one and when the patient seems to hear better in noisy places.

Third, tenderness, itching or pain in or about the ear.

Fourth, "ringing" in the ear.

Fifth, dizziness, a sense of unsteadiness, sometimes with nausea and vomiting.

Sixth, moisture or a discharge issuing from the ear.

Seventh, swelling in or about the ear, painful or otherwise.

When there is reason to believe that the ear is not functioning normally, the person so afflicted should submit to a thorough examination of the ear. Often, it will be found a diseased condition of the nose, throat and teeth is contributing to deafness.

If the inciting cause is not then revealed, x-ray photographs may be made of the chest and blood tests conducted to facilitate diagnosis. The physician will seek, if possible, to aid natural body forces in the recovery of the hearing and, as well, to remove any discernible factor tending to prolong the disease.

Not all ear trouble can be prevented. Sometimes it is of an

Orders Truck-Loading Restricted

Special spring truck loading restrictions were ordered by the state highway department this week on all state trunkline highways.

State Highway Commissioner Murray D. VanWagoner's order for general application of the restrictions followed by several weeks the original order placing them in effect on all trunkline highways south of the Bay City-Muskegon line. The spring regulations call for load limit reductions of 25 per cent on all concrete roads and 35 per cent on gravel roads. They may be applied or lifted by the state highway commissioner as conditions warrant during March, April and May. The commissioner said that the restrictions would be lifted as rapidly as conditions on individual highways permitted.

These measures are designed to protect the highways during the periods of "spring break-up" when the frost leaves the ground and subgrades are soft.

DEPT. OF STATE

STATE NEWS BULLETIN

MOTORISTS WARNED OF JUNK CAR RACKET

Motorists who junk their cars either by design or as the consequence of an accident, may unwittingly be aiding car thieves, Harry F. Kelly, Secretary of State, points out.

The possibility of motorists being an involuntary party to auto theft rings, exists more often in the case of new or nearly new cars that have been wrecked. If car thieves can acquire a fairly new model car, wrecked and about to be junked, and acquire its title as well, their path is not difficult. It is necessary then only to obtain a car of like make and design, make alterations such as exchanging motors, to have a car and title, to which no one could challenge, Kelly advises.

Motorists can protect themselves against such a possibility if they will note that the only instance in which a title does not "follow" the car is when the car is to be junked.

The Motor Vehicle Law provides that a motorist disposing of his car to a junk dealer, must assign the title to the car to the junk dealer, but not deliver it to the junk dealer. Rather, the title must be sent to the Secretary of State, together with an application for a certificate to junk which can be secured from licensed car junkers. A junking permit is then sent to the dealer by the Secretary of State.

Reports from Police Department Investigators have definitely shown that car theft operations have been carried on. Wrecked cars may be "snatched" in any part of the State. In every instance, such operations would be impossible if junked car titles had been sent to Lansing in accordance with the law.

hereditary nature, sometimes the companion of age, sometimes the result of repeated infections which have destroyed the hearing apparatus.

It is generally true, however, that the earlier treatment is sought, the better is the chance for preserving the hearing. No ear infection of children should be regarded lightly.

Mr. and Mrs. William LaGrow expect to spend next week in Lansing where the former will spend a week in a Nehi Bottling plant getting new ideas for his work at the local plant. Mrs. LaGrow and children will visit her sister, Mrs. Fred Jones and family while there.

A large attractive arrangement of yellow tulips, pink stock and blue iris centered the long luncheon table at which the guests of Mrs. Ebbert Hanson were seated at her home Wednesday afternoon of last week. Bob Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hill, and a student in the naval academy at Annapolis, and his room mate have been selected to represent the academy in the intercollegiate dinghy competition that is to be held in June. It might be well to explain that a dinghy is a small boat of a man-of-war, or a rowboat without rigging. These two young men would have to be expert in order to have been singled out to represent the naval academy. It is a fine honor.

Henry Jordan, who has been a section foreman for the Michigan Central railroad since 1914 finished his work Friday, having reached the required pension age. He first began work in Bay City and was transferred to Grayling a short time later. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Emert are happy over the arrival of a son, born to them Tuesday, April 4.

Teddy, the 2 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crawford, narrowly escaped serious injury when he fell out of an upstairs window at their home a few days ago. Mrs. Crawford was about to dress Teddy, and as was usual, he ran away to hide, so she could look for him. He ran upstairs and the next thing they knew they heard him crying outdoors. He was immediately taken to the hospital, where a deep gash that had been cut in his head from striking on the frozen ground was closed. It is reported that Teddy is recovering nicely at Mercy Hospital.

Before you select your smart Easter Outfit be sure to see the complete new line at the Maureen Shoppe.

Mrs. Lottie Tatro submitted to an operation at Mercy Hospital Tuesday morning, and is reported as getting along as well as may be expected.

Dr. David Shetter and Harold Bowditch of the Institute of Fisheries Research of Ann Arbor, spent last week at Grayling Fish Hatchery. The gentlemen were here for the purpose of tagging fish to check how far they will travel. 1,000 adult brook trout were tagged for the North Branch and 500 brown trout and 500 rainbows for Pigeon River. Fenton Carbine, also of the Institute of Fisheries Research is making his headquarters in Grayling, for about three weeks while checking the pike migration at Houghton lake.

Mrs. James Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Perry and Mrs. Claude Cardinal left for Ann Arbor Wednesday morning to visit the latter's daughter, Wanda, who has been on nursing duties in the St. Joseph Hospital there, and who underwent an appendectomy Tuesday.

Maple Hill Dairy

In many older parts of the world people still cling to the ancient custom of leading their cow to the market places and the customers door. The cow is milked into a container furnished by the customer.

Here in the U. S. your milk is pasteurized; last but not least cooled and delivered in a sanitary and sterilized bottle.

Garden Hints

PRUNING

The question of when and when not to prune trees is still unsettled among garden enthusiasts. Some believe that trees should only be pruned to keep them in a healthy and vigorous condition. Other gardeners maintain that a pruned tree is a weakened tree. The best time of the year to do the cutting is also a matter of considerable debate, and practically every month of the year has its advocates.

It is true that a pruned tree will produce a more vigorous growth of shoots, Walter Kleinschmidt of the University of Michigan Botanical Garden says. On the other hand, he points out, observation has shown that a pruned tree will not produce as much fruit as an unpruned one.

Pruning forces the growth of shoots at the expense of the fruit and fruiting spurs. For this reason the pruning knife should be used sparingly on ordinary fruit trees. In any case, a balance between vegetative and root growth should be maintained.

The season of the year that the cutting is done has considerable effect on the tree. Pruning to remove dead, sick, or superfluous branches may be done at any convenient time. In pruning for a special purpose, Mr. Kleinschmidt says, it is well to remember that, for the development of fruiting spurs, it is best to cut in mid-summer, for general growth, cut in autumn or late fall; and, for the development of twig, branch, and fruiting spurs, cut in late winter or early spring.

Great care must be taken while pruning not to injure the bark of the larger branches and limbs. Saw cuts must be made smooth with a knife and painted with shellac or tar paint. This seals the air from the wound and prevents fungus diseases. A systematic pruning year after year, during summer or winter, should be avoided, the gardener cautions, since a too free use of the pruning knife too often results in the inability of a tree to produce fruit.

CAN OPENER AIDS FISH APETITES

Michigan lays claim to offering the greatest amount of fishing territory for the average fisherman, but the can opener still offers a helpful guarantee of a meal on the table.

Information offered the extension service of Michigan State College from the United States Department of Agriculture serves housewives seeking knowledge of how to purchase canned fish and seafoods. Fresh fish from the lakes, and smelt offer sizeable additions to Lenten and spring meals, the canned goods supplement these.

Five recognized grades of salmon are usual. In market values these usually range from the higher priced Chinook to the Red, Coho, Pink and Chum grades.

Labels on tuna fish cans help buyers. Three classifications are common, the white meat, light meat and the Tonnio. Whitemeat tuna is scarce and expensive, the federal survey indicates. Lightmeat tuna usually is sold. Tonnio means the fish is packed in olive oil in the Italian style.

Sardine labels indicate how the small fish are packed, whether in olive oil, salad oil, tomato sauce or mustard sauce.

Shrimp proved a heavy catch last year. More than a million cases of cans were filled from shrimp taken out of the Gulf of Mexico. Inspection of the shrimp canning processes involved 51 canners who appealed several years ago for a federal service that would supervise their operations, to make the food dependable.

Other fish that can supplement the table even for the most successful worm or fly fisherman, include canned codfish, fish roe and appetizers, as well as the imported smoked fish such as kippers and the canned crustaceans such as crabs and lobsters. The housewife at times can be a better fisherman than the man with the reel.

SECRET OF SUCCESS

The editor of a country newspaper moved to a big city the other day, retiring with $100,000 to his credit. When asked for the secret of his success, he replied: "I attribute my ability to retire with a $100,000 bank balance, after thirty years in the country newspaper field, to close application to duty, pursuing a policy of strict honesty, taking good times with the bad, always practicing rigorous rules of economy, and to the recent death of my uncle who left me $99,999.95."—Typo-Talks.

Camp Kalkaska Holding Open House

Following is the program to be given by CCC Camp Kalkaska to celebrate the sixth anniversary April Eighth and ninth:

Saturday, April 8th
9:00 a. m.—Visitors will visit bridge construction project north of Manistee river.
10:30 a. m.—Visit game refuge landscaping project.
2:00 p. m.—Will follow highway 612 to lookout tower.
3:00 p. m.—North to Deward, the ghost town, then on to planting areas.
Sunday afternoon, April 9th
10:00 to 5:00—Lunch served camp style.
2:30—Organized tour of camp area.
2:30 to 5:00—Concert by Kalkaska band.

In addressing his first Congress in 1933, President Roosevelt said: "I propose to create a Civilian Conservation Corps to be used in simple work, not interfering with normal employment, and confining itself to forestry, the prevention of soil erosion, flood control and similar projects." Thus the C.C.C. was born in April of 1933. Up to and including the present date, the C.C.C. has been one of the best paying propositions that the new deal government has developed; and has won the respect of foes as well as friends.

Mr. Robert Fechner was chosen by President Roosevelt to set up and run this first agency. Implicitly trusted by Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Fechner ran and still runs the show, but is aided by experts representing the four departments (Agriculture, Interior, War, Labor) most concerned with the program.

By the end of the 1938 season, the enrollees of the CCC had planted almost a billion and a half trees, and had put in over a million and a half man-days preventing and fighting fires. They had built over a million miles of trails and roads, and built 41,980 bridges; had constructed over five thousand dams, and built 3,618 fire towers, and has constructed almost 70,000 miles of telephone lines.

Ordinary enrollees in the CCC are paid $30 per month. Assistant leaders draw $36 and leaders $45. The enrollees of the camp are governed by rules which are enforced by the commanding officer. The Forestry personnel take over the job of training the enrollee and supervising his work. There is always technical supervision for the enrollee who wishes to learn. Their voluntary enrolled classes have 90% attendance supervised by the Dept. of Interior.

To earn their pay and keep, the boys must turn out for reveille at 6:00 a. m. and put on their working clothes. From then on the day's schedule is: Breakfast at 6:20, sick call at 7:00 and continued until eight when they report for work call. Early lunches arrive and then back to work; off work at 4:00 p. m., change to Army issue olive drab, or khaki for formation, and dress inspection and mess at 5:30.

The CCC's fun comes after mess at 5:30. Education is given additional attention. Until taps at 10:00, four out of ten boys take a vocational instruction in everything from Diesel engine operation to drawing; three in ten study mathematics and other academic subjects. They also have organized sports, camp papers along with other recreation. On Saturday and Sunday the enrollees may go to town to spend what is left of their monthly pay check.

Up until now the C's have been almost entirely free of any sort of military training. The recent questions on whether or not the CCC should be militarized or not has not at all changed the method of training.

Robert Fechner had never specifically agreed to military training of the boys; but he may call to the attention of the public, the value of the CCC. Army officers consider three months of extensive training the minimum necessary to turn a green man into a conscript fighter, but think a CCC'er may be useful after a month of training. But because he believes that for his corps, the spade is mightier than the sword and a better weapon and because he believes that conservation is the CCC's first and foremost aim, Robert Fechner would, in case his boys be militarized, have Congress forget the work program and go in exclusively for military training, and would draw trainees from all classes of population.

Prideful Camp Kalkaska enrollees point to their part in the vast CCC accomplishments. On April 8th and 9th they are holding open house, and invite their friends from Grayling, Gaylord, Kalkaska, Mancelona, and Traverse City, to visit their camp. Escorts will be furnished for each group of visitors.

AGAINST MUNICIPAL LIGHT AND POWER PLANT RESENT ACTION

igan Public Service Company in an effort to block the will of the people of Grayling, and

Whereas, we believe that an accurate expression of the will of the people of Grayling was expressed by the result of said election.

Now Therefore, Be It Resolved
1. That the will of the people of Grayling as expressed at said election should be carried out.
2. That the Prosecuting Attorney of Crawford County cease using his public office to defeat the will of the people of Grayling for the private benefit of others.

3. That we hereby go on record as supporters of every act of the officials of said City in their efforts to carry out the will of the people.

4. That we further support said officials in all their efforts to defeat the officers and agents of the Michigan Public Service Company whom we believe are attempting to prevent or delay the construction of said municipal plant.

5. That we organize a Grayling Citizens Committee and elect officers thereof who shall be known to all of the people and who shall act for us with instructions to do any and all things necessary to carry out the will of the people of said City as expressed at said election.

6. That we condemn all efforts of a self appointed few, who from motives of selfish personal gain, are, in our opinion, allowing themselves to be used as pawns of the power company to harass and delay the City.

Be It Further Resolved, that public notice of this resolution be given by publication in the Crawford Avalanche and that a copy hereof be mailed to Merle F. Nellist, Gale Clise, Jappe F. Smith and the Michigan Public Service Company.

GRAYLING CITIZENS' COMMITTEE

Several made remarks and it was the general sense of opinion that a citizens committee should be formed. Some of the speakers stated that, before the election, they had been opposed to the city constructing a municipal electric plant but that now that over two-thirds of the people favored it that they too were in full accord.

Nominations for officers were made and Dr. C. R. Keyport was elected president and T. P. Peterson secretary. Inasmuch as there were no dues to pay there was no need of a treasurer so none was elected.

On motion the resolution that had been read by the chairman was unanimously adopted. Slips were passed among the audience reading as follows:

"The undersigned hereby agrees to be a member of Grayling Citizens' committee and to actively support all efforts of the City of Grayling to acquire a Municipal Light and Power Plant, and to oppose all efforts of the Michigan Public Service Co., and all others to prevent or delay the City to acquire such a plant."

Over 100 of the agreements were signed at the meeting and many more came in the following morning. Not one person present failed to sign, even including two who did not reside within the city limits but were interested.

Next Tuesday afternoon Circuit court will convene and this case will come up in court. It is doubtful if the court will be ready to try the case that afternoon but it is quite probable, in that case, that it will be tried Wednesday.

Pupils Give Demonstration

The high school gym saw its biggest crowd of the season this week Tuesday night when the Physical Education Department of the school presented a demonstration of its activities.

The program was one of the most interesting seen in the local gym, being varied, fast-paced, and of real value. Mr. Cornell, in complete charge of production, was assisted by the Recreation Project in the persons of Leo Lovely and Litwyn Doremire. The program was a cross-section of the school's regular physical education classes, from fourth grade through the tenth, and about 300 pupils took part. A variety of activities was presented, from kick ball, hand soccer, and ping-pong, to calisthenics, basketball, relays, marching, and dodge-ball, concluding with tumbling and gymnastics.

It was all highly entertaining, and the various numbers changed quickly, so that the program moved swiftly. The whole affair was very well received and it is planned to make it an annual event.

Mr. Cornell's classes showed to fine advantage in displaying thorough familiarity with their activities. The program follows:

1. Entrance March—All classes.
2. Kickball—4th grade girls.
3. Ping-Pong—Finalists of School Tournaments.
4. Hand Soccer Ball—4th grade boys.
5. Calisthenics—7th-8th grade boys.

Fish or Tourist

What do we want? We can't have both with other big inland lakes closing and the mental effects on fishermen when they learn (which they will) that certain lakes are closed to winter fishing, they will naturally come to the places that are closed part of the year in the hopes of bigger catches or bigger fish.

Each person in this district is interested in the tourist business, if not directly at least indirectly. A dollar changes hands seven times before it leaves town and therein lies your interest.

The following figures are taken from Alexander R. George:

This year the various state will issue 7,000,000 licenses; in 1932 and '33 4,858,000 licenses were sold. Ten million American anglers will spend an estimated $270,000,000 on fishing trips this year. Its up to us of Grayling to get our share of this business.

For the benefit of these anglers about $3,000,000 is expended annually for hatching, rearing and distributing sport fish, $2,400,000 by the states and $600,000 by the Federal Government. Eighty-eight federal and 390 state hatcheries will put out three billion fry, fingerling and adult non-commercial fish.

As a means of getting a larger share of this business I suggest we close Lake Margrethe to winter fishing, not as the fish taken from here in the winter NOW hurts so much, but with other big lakes in our near districts closing and winter fishermen from the South are going north and will come to our lake and deplete it before we could have a chance to stop them.

After a lake once gets the name of being fished out it is done.

Let's all work together and hold the name, the game, and the fish, and keep Grayling the center of Northern Michigan as far as outdoor sporting activities are concerned. Vote to close this lake for winter fishing.

JACK WADE, Grayling.

THE FAVORITE BEER FOR 50 YEARS

Reddy Kilowatt Says:

This is certainly swell weather for flying kites—lots of wind and everything. But here's a tip to parents and children so that the fun won't be spoiled.

PARENTS—Your children realize that they must use the utmost care when they are crossing the streets and highways—and they realize the danger of obstructing automobile traffic. Kite flying is lots of fun and is splendid exercise, but it also has its dangers.

Teach your children these

3 SAFETY RULES:

1. Do not fly kites anywhere near electric wires.
2. Never use wire or tinsel cord, or cord that has become damp from rain or fog.
3. If cord is caught in electric wires—LET GO. Do not pull it. Call the Power Company to remove it and get your kite back for you.

SPRING CLEAN-UP TIME

Spring's earliest gentle breezes stir the ambition of most homeowners to get out in the yard and rake away dead leaves and brush, to point up flower beds and hedge rows. Thousands of American communities are now planning their annual spring clean-up campaigns.

Every property owner and renter will do well to carry out a clean-up program of his own, not only for the aesthetic value it may have but also because ridding cellars, attics, stairways and sheds of rubbish which has accumulated throughout the winter is an excellent preventative against fires. Advantages of clean-up campaigns to local communities include the following, listed by the National Fire Protection association:

"Clean-up campaigns create civic pride, intensify home interest, develop community cooperation, prevent disease, eliminate causes of fires, foster optimism and help to preserve property."

Some of the suggested activities are: "Renovating every home and yard, from the attic to the front gate; cleaning up all vacant lots and making them into playgrounds or gardens; inspecting all mercantile establishments and industrial plants, removing all fire hazards; inspecting all buildings and public institutions, recommending safety improvements; extending the campaign to include surrounding areas and farm districts, through cooperative mediums."

Since merely cleaning up is not sufficient for permanent safety, the campaign should include repainting, painting and beautification. A drive should be conducted to remove dilapidated and useless buildings as well.

The religion that promises the final extinction of the soul is Hinduism, with its doctrine of Nirvana or union of the soul with Brahma, ending its individuality.

Grange Notes

What The Grange Is

The Grange is America's oldest farm organization, established in 1867. It is now completing 72 years of vigorous life and continuous service. Of its 8,000 local units nearly one-half occupy their own halls. It is a permanent farm group and will be here for long years to come.

America's largest farm organization, according to the official records of various farm organizations, as given at their respective annual meetings, the Grange has a larger paid-up membership than any other in America.

A family organization, requiring men and women and having a definite place for the young people. The entire family can participate in the educational, social and fraternal benefits of the Grange. This insures stability.

Last Saturday night the Grange conferred the first and second degrees on twenty-two candidates. Several more are ready to take the degrees. Frank DeLaMater of Gaylord filled the Masters chair. There were also other visitors from Gaylord, and Ohio. About sixty-five sat down to the pot luck lunch after the meeting. Songs and music, also dancing was enjoyed.

The captains of the contest for new members reported as follows:

Mrs. George Skingley's team secured seven members; Mrs. Charles Corwin's team added seventeen new and re-instated members. Both sides decided to give a supper for the new members at the next meeting, Saturday night, April 15th, as the third and fourth degrees will be conferred at that time. Any new member who has not received those degrees please be present, and get them with the rest of the candidates.

The bake sale that was held Saturday was a success and added a neat sum to the building fund. The beautiful inlaid box that was given to the Grange by Mrs. Frieda Lenartz went to Mr. William Woodburn.

Founded Westminster Abbey, Islip, seven miles out of Oxford, England, is the birthplace of Edward the Confessor, who gave the town to Westminster abbey which he founded.
